No Refusal - AUGUST

by Melody S. Campos

This month's No Refusal was held on Saturday, August 8th. The "theme" for the evening was Mexican food. There were tacos, tamales, and nachos galore!! On another note, this was also my first successful attempt at making a Velveeta cheese dip! Once everyone had their fill of the savory selections, they satisfied their sweet tooth at the dessert table. The homemade chocolate chip cookies were melt-in-your-mouth delicious! For those watching their diet however, there were salad fixings and an assortment of fruit as well. We served about 100 officers, staff, and volunteers combined. I want to give a mucho grande thank you to everyone who made this night a success!!

No Refusal is held about once a month at HPD's Central Intox facility located at 61 Riesner. Its purpose is to provide delicious meals to officers from all agencies servicing the Houston area. Before this program was initiated, many officers would often go hungry or "snack" on whatever they could find during the wee hours of the night. Now, morale has been given a boost as officers are fed both food and words of encouragement.

No Refusal serving hours are between 8:00 PM and 6 :00 AM - perfect for those who need volunteer hours to vote and/or renew their badge. Food and monetary donations (tax-deductible, of course) are also accepted if the hours don't fit into your schedule. For more information, please contact Jeanette Einkauf: mjjeinkauf14@aol.com or Phil Niewald: edfitz1975@yahoo.com.

Our next No Refusal will be "Hot Dog & Hamburger Night" on Saturday, September 5th - Labor Day weekend. Hope to see y'all there!!!

First they fed themselves and then they fed the horses

by Mike Weingart

First they fed themselves and then they fed the horses. That's what happened on July 25 when all those who volunteered at Officer Richard Martin's funeral were recognized at an appreciation brunch hosted at HPD Mounted Patrol. A number of HCPAAA members and their families came out to host the volunteers from League City CPA, Harris County SO District IV as well as our HCPAAA members. The three organizations along with the Harris County Sheriffs Chaplains and the family of fallen HCSO Deputy Jesse "Trey" Valdez had provided volunteers, food and monetary donations to host 120 Honor Guard Officers from many agencies throughout the country and over 50 members of the Martin Family.

The appreciation brunch was the idea of our liaison Officer Treva Mott. She was assisted that day by Officer James Byrd, also assigned to public affairs division. The funding for the event came from the Houston Police Officers Association. Assisting that day was HCPAAA member Teresa Wilson, who is a civilian employee at the Mounted Division.

Mounted Patrol Officer Jeff Harris briefed the group on the 38 horses and 2 mules that make up the Mounted Patrol. The group has a complement of 35 including a lieutenant and six sergeants. Officer Harris, an 8 year HPD veteran who has been at Mounted two years, gave a quick course on how to feed the horses the apples and carrots. "You get more bang for the buck if you cut them up," Officer Harris said of the fruit and vegetables. The group then went to the stalls to meet and feed the occupants.

Houston & League City Presidents, Abraham Guevara and Jack Compton

HCPAAA members in attendance who assisted at the funeral included Connie Savage, Annette Basey, Roark K. Russell and Andrea Schmauss. Those HCPAAA members who assisted in hosting the event were President Abraham Guevara, First Vice President Mike Neely, Parliamentarian Mike Weingart, Synthia Brown and Keyla Guevara. Several members of our group brought family members to assist. Representing the visiting CPA chapters were Jack Compton, president of the League City Alumni Association,
